November 2017

Thanksgiving is a day when we pause to give thanks for the things we have.

"Veterans Day" is a day when we pause to give thanks to the people who fought for the things we have.

Greetings from South Fremont High School

Greetings from South Fremont High School,

November is a busy month here at school and there are some really important activities to keep in mind. Parent-teacher conferences will be held November 8th and 9th from 4:00-8:00 p.m each day. Also on these evenings the counselors will be available to discuss your child's career and college readiness. They will present information on college applications as well as the FAFSA financial aid application. Students will not have school Friday, November 10.

November 13th will be the day for our annual Veteran's Day Assembly. We ask the students to dress up that day to help set the tone for this very important event. The assembly will be held at 10:00 a.m. in the gym. We are very fortunate this year to have Neil Hirschi, a former principal from South Fremont High School, as our guest speaker.

The school will be presenting the annual fall musical November 16th, 17th, 18th, and 20th in the Little Theater. Tickets will be available in the main office and from the students. They are performing Big River this year and it should be a great show.

We will dismiss for the Thanksgiving Holiday at the end of the day on Tuesday the 21st. Students will return to school on Monday, November 27th.

The holiday season is rapidly approaching and life becomes incredibly hectic. We will work hard to continue preparing students for their futures.

Mr. Bennett

Reminder of procedures for lockdowns and lockouts. These protocols will make us all safer if ever there is a situation at our school.

This presentation would not be possible without the materials originated by Adams 12, Five Star Schools and the City and County of Broomfield Police and Emergency Manager's office.

Counseling News

South Fremont High School is excited to participate in College Application Week November 6-9. This is our fourth year and its purpose is to increase the number of students pursuing a college degree or other higher education credential. An agenda of daily events will be posted on the website. Our goal is for every senior to complete a college application, scholarship application, and FAFSA. In conjunction with parent/teacher conferences, FAFSA assistance will be available both nights from 5:30-7:30 p.m. Mr. Huber will be available at 6:00 p.m. for Freshman Orientation information if there are interested families.

**All students who complete the FAFSA will be put into a drawing to win $100

November 2 is the registration deadline for the December 4 SAT test and November 3 is the registration deadline for the December 9 ACT test.

December 1 is the priority admission deadline for BYU-Idaho. If your student is interested in attending there, they need to begin the application process now and a BYU-I representative will be available November 8 to complete the application.

December 1 is ASVAB testing for all Juniors. This is a career exploration program.

Classroom News

Mr. Powell - Technology

What! Where did first quarter go??? Time flies when we have so much fun!

The Technology department has been busy getting everyone ready for building projects. The Fundamentals of Technology class has been doing research for bridge designs and drawing plans for the design they want to build. Some have received their materials and are beginning to build. Everyone else will get materials as they finish their plans this week. I'm excited to see how everyone's designs do this year when we test them to destruction (mwa ha ha ha)!

The drafting class has just finished up practicing their newly learned sketching techniques and are learning to measure using the various drafting scales. Many of these students have been in one of my classes prior to this one, so they already have a pretty good grasp on measuring with a standard ruler. However, they are gaining new experience using the mechanical, architectural, and metric scales now. They also get to learn to draw arrowheads following drafting standards. This exercise prepares them for future assignments using other drafting tools and in the creation of multi-view drawings.

Robotics students are preparing for a brief class competition. They must modify their 'base-bots' to be able to push 4" nerf balls through a barrier whilst competing against an opposing team. The round is timed for 2 minutes and the team with the most Nerf balls on the opponents side of the barrier wins the round. The contest is double-elimination and we go until we have a grand champion alliance. This gives drivers of the robots a chance to practice their driving skills in a 'high pressure' environment and prepares them for more challenging competitions later in the year. This first competition is always a blast!

The basic woods classes are back in the shop after doing the STEAM work we are required to do. They are excited to be back out sawing, chiseling, and drilling away on their joint projects. They must build 10 different joints, used for connecting pieces of wood together, and the joints must be precise, clean, and flush. This teaches everyone how to use tools they may have in a home shop or garage and shows it is a bit more difficult that in looks to achieve perfection. I like it because it makes them appreciate power tools, a lot more, later.

The advanced class is beginning to work on their projects. They have created the project they wanted to create by drawing a complete set of multi-view and assembly plans using a computer program called AutoCAD. They also developed their own plan of procedure, which is a list of steps needed to build the project from start to finish. We then did a bill of materials list so they know the amounts and costs of each type of wood and hardware needed to build their projects. These projects will be awesome to see when they're finished as well!

The TSA club members, which meet each Wed. after school, are working on projects that will be used to compete with students from all over the state at our spring leadership conference. The conference will be from March 8th to the 10th this year, so mark you calendars! We're excited to associate with other schools and have fun during the competitions!

Finally, we are excited for the addition of a new band saw and a new drill press to replace the 40 year old models we've been using to this point. Those old machines have served their time and treated us well. I can't say I'm too sad to see them go though :-). We look forward to the new machines serving our purposes better and making us more productive. That's it for now. Until next month, adios!

Business Education - Mrs. Berrett

Computer Applications

Students are working hard in preparation for the Microsoft Office Specialist Certification in Word 2016.

Web Design

Students in web design are learning to code using HTML and CSS. Their skills and knowledge are continually improving. HTML, CSS and coding knowledge of any kind, gives students skills that will help them in the future, even if they do not go into the field of web design. Coding knowledge is useful in any field.

Publishing

Students are learning some skills in Photoshop and have moved to InDesign. The class is small, but talented. They will be designing the tickets, the flyers, and the program for the school play. Some of their work is displayed in the hall near the library. Stop by during PT conferences and take a look.

BASIC Training--Building Student Leadership Skills

by Micayla Argueta

Over South Fremont's spud harvest break, seven students from South Fremont, were able to attend a basic leadership training in Idaho Falls, Idaho. Many organizations were present at this event, luckily South Fremont was represented in, Business Professionals of America(BPA), Technology Student Association(TSA), and Family Career and Community Leaders of America(FCCLA), by South Fremont's students, Micayla Argueta, Mackenzie Webster, Reina Matsamura, Edith Chavez, Taylor Yon, and Hailey Lister. In this leadership training, they were able to participate in the development of the future generation leaders. They learned the basics of cooperation, friendship, service, and much more. It is an experience that none of them will ever forget, and it is my hope that they can take their knowledge gained from this experience, and with the support of the school, share with the learning students, who wish to make a difference in this world.

Reina Matsumura, a TSA student, from South Fremont, sums up the experience with these words: "Basic training was very helpful in learning how to be a better leader. Each of us have the ability to lead and step up, when our services are needed. But sometimes, it feels like you're thrown into the part without really knowing what to do, so this training was very helpful for me. I plan on taking what I learned and helping the members of my chapter integrate it in their lives so they can better assist where they can."

Booster Club

The fall sports are winding down. We are getting close to the sports awards' nights. Mark your calendars for the following nights:
Wednesday, Nov 8th will be the sports' award night for football @ 7:30pm in the gym.
Thursday, Nov 9th will be the sports' award night for volleyball, soccer, and cross country @ 7:30 pm in the gym.

This year we are recognizing a sport each season with the highest average GPA as a whole (C team, jv, and varsity all together.) The sport each season with the highest GPA will be awarded an ice cream or pizza party. The winning sport will be announced at the sports' award night. This will also take place in the winter and spring.

We will continue to sell cougarware during the winter sports. Come check out our new stuff for the winter. Cougarware makes great Christmas gifts.

Here is a schedule of the beginning games we will be at:

November 30 @ wrestling match 5:00-6:00

December 1 @ boys' bkb from 6:00-8:00

December 7 @ girls' bkb from 6:00-8:00

We will be selling at games following those as well! Come and get your red and black to show your cougar pride!

We love our school! We love our kids! We love our community! This is a great place to be from!!

Congratulations to our volleyball team and Emma Dunster for their state performances!!

It's a great day to be a COUGAR!!
